Description

This beautiful hacienda-style, one-story home is a true gem! Its high ceilings provide excellent ventilation and let in plenty of natural light, creating an open and airy atmosphere. Step inside this unique home, and you'll be amazed by the Mexican style architecture throughout. Both the dining and living room have large, beautiful wood-framed windows, which create a warm and inviting ambiance. This spacious living area looks out onto an open air front patio and a covered central light filled courtyard. This solar powered house is located in a privileged, quiet neighborhood; it's a short walk to both the beach and the river. Great local markets, shopping centers, hospitals, and the main boulevard are minutes away.
