Description

If you are looking for a income generating property, small development or a single lot to build on, here is this corner lot, completely fenced with red bricks, with some small fruit trees, offers a view of 2 hacienda-type houses, as well as the mountains, it will not make you feel like you are in the city, it currently has a half bathroom, storage room, lighting, water and drainage. Because it is a corner lot, it is prepared to make underground parking for 7 cars, the zoning of land allows the construction of approximately 1,356 M2, so you can build a farm-type house, apartments, etc. (we have land zoning in file).
