Description

Going up? Take an elevator to the rooftop pool to the top of this five-level building and soak in the 360-degree of Puerto Vallarta, Banderas Bay, and the Sierra Madre Mountains. This fabulous 5,333 square-foot dwelling was custom designed by a revered local architect, and it is located in the coveted 5 de Diciembre neighborhood, near the entrance of PV's famous Malecon. In fact, it is only a three-block walk on flat ground to get to the beach. Since it was designed as a private home, the three main living areas consist of four-bedroom suites. There is also space for additional bedrooms to be configured. There are spacious, high ceilings throughout the entire building. Every bedroom has a terrace with views of the bay.
