Description

Casa Redonda is an 8,000 sq. ft. Puerto Vallarta villa, designed by internationally acclaimed Austrian-Mexican architect Alejandro Zohn. The main level includes kitchen, dining and living areas that open onto a spacious sundeck terrace, lovely infinity pool and a grand palapa, covered mirador/outdoor living area overlooking the Banderas Bay and the city. A complete bar has been incorporated near the pool for entertainment. The two-level upstairs have three bedrooms and a spacious media room. The fourth bedroom-apartment located off the main level kitchen area has its own kitchenette, bath, small sitting area and terrace with stream and garden view. The villa rooftop has a palapa and sundeck terrace for lounging as well as a lookout tower with awesome views.
