Description

Public Remarks Experience the magic of perfection in modern architectural design in this significant oceanfront property. The melding of the natural settings with residence invites the outside as living art. Each of the four bedrooms (one bedroom is currently being used at an Artist Studio, could easily be returned to the 4th bedroom) are placed in equal importance for appreciation of design and view. The common areas of the villa leaves one unaware from where the villa ends with its connection with natural setting over the bay. The swimming pool traversing the property adds to the mystique. Full garages and service area complete the compound.
