Description

It's situated at the top of Gringo Hill, offering panoramic views of the village, coastline, ocean, and mountains of Sayulita. Being close to the town plaza and the beach is a significant advantage for renters. Three Self-Contained 1-BR Suites: The property has three one-bedroom suites, each with open architecture. They come fully equipped with kitchens and bathrooms, providing self-contained living spaces for guests. The floors of the property have been recently renovated, ensuring a modern and well-maintained interior. All three units are fully furnished, which makes it convenient for renters as they won't need to bring their own furniture. The property features pueblo-style curves and arches, giving it a distinctive and attractive interior design.
